

REQUESTS U. S. TO DELAY JUDGMENT

Von Bernstorff Sends Instructions from Berlin to State Department

FIRST WORD FROM BERLIN

Receipt of Communication Is Followed By an Evident Relaxation of Tension

LANSING MAKES NO COMMENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, communicated to the state department today instructions from his government, expressing regret and sympathy, if Americans lost their lives in the sinking of the liner Arabic and asking that the United States delay taking a definite stand in regard to the affair until Germany could be heard from.

First Word from Germany.

This was the first word from an official German source concerning the Arabic, on which two Americans perished. Its receipt was followed by an evident relaxation of the tension which had been growing here as days passed with no indication of a desire on Germany's part to disclaim any intention of committing an act "deliberately unfriendly" toward the United States.

No attempt was made either at the state department or the white house to interpret the ambassador's communication. Officials merely said that of course the American government would await the German explanation of the action of the submarine commander in sinking the liner.

Sends Text of Instructions.

Count Von Bernstorff telegraphed the state department from New York the text of his instructions from Berlin. It follows:

"So far no official information available concerning the sinking of the Arabic. The German government trusts that the American government will not take a definite stand at hearing only the reports of one side which in the opinion of the imperial government cannot correspond with the facts but that a chance will be given to Germany to be heard equally.

"Although the imperial government does not doubt the good faith of the witnesses whose statements reported by the newspapers in Europe it should be borne in mind that these statements are naturally made under excitement which might easily produce wrong impressions.

"If Americans should have lost their lives this would naturally be contrary to our intentions. The German government would deeply regret the fact and begs to tender sincerest sympathy to the American government."

Lansing Makes No Comment.

Secretary Lansing indicated he did not intend to reply to the ambassador's message at this time. He agreed to its publication with a statement that he had no comment to make.

Particular attention was attributed here by the assertion in the German communication that in the opinion of the imperial government the accounts of the sinking of the Arabic which have come from England "could not correspond with fact." These accounts in affidavits by the captain of the ship and American survivors have agreed that the Arabic, an unarmed passenger vessel bound for the United States with no contraband in her cargo, was torpedoed without warning by a submarine.

It may be a week or more before Germany is heard from further. The report of the submarine commander must be awaited in Berlin and it is known that sometimes ten days or more elapse before the underwater boats return to their bases and communicate with the admiralty.

Continues to Compile Evidence.

In the meantime the state department will continue compiling its evidence forwarded by Ambassador Page and the consular officers at Liverpool and Queenstown. So far only a synopsis of the affidavits of American survivors has been cabled and Secretary Lansing says the department will give out no more of the reports until complete information is in hand. The texts of the affidavits have been mailed by Ambassador Page.

In connection with the German ambassador's communication today it was recalled here that three days after the sinking of the Lusitania the ambassador presented a note expressing the sympathy and regret of his government for the loss of American lives. There was no attempt however, to deny that the Lusitania had been sent to the bottom with her passengers without warning and blame for the disaster was placed upon the British government which permitted a vessel carrying contra-

ARRANGE FOR LARGE FRENCH EXPORT CREDIT

PURPOSE IS TO ENABLE AMERICAN EXPORTERS TO BE PAID IN DOLLARS

Is Secured By the Guarantee of the Banque of France of Payment at Maturity in Gold If Necessary—Amount of Credit Is $20,000,000.

New York, Aug. 24.—Announcement was made tonight by Brown Bros. & Co., that arrangements for a $20,000,000 French commercial export credit have been completed and the credit issued.

"The purpose of the credit," say the bankers in their announcement, "is to enable American exporters to be paid in dollars in the United States, eliminating any risk of exchange and thus facilitating our exports. It will also enable French buyers of American merchandise and other commodities, who have found it difficult owing to extraordinary conditions now prevailing to obtain exchange with which to settle their accounts with American merchants.

"The credit is for a period of one year and is to be availed of by drafts at 90 days sight. Care has been taken to comply with the requirements of our banking laws relating to commercial acceptances. In addition to the responsibility of the French drawers of the bill, the credit is secured by the guarantee of the Banque of France of payment at maturity in gold if necessary. Collateral is also deposited in New York as additional protection of the credit."

Five British financiers and not three as originally reported, probably will represent Great Britain in arranging a foreign credit here according to advices said to have been received today by New York financiers from London. It is believed that Sir Edward Holden and Sir Felix Schuster named in the original report from London, would represent the joint stock banks of London and that a third representative of these banks would accompany them. The other two members it is said will represent the British treasury department.

No marked developments or changes in the foreign exchange situation are anticipated until their arrival.

CYRUS SANDERS STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE IN DECATUR

Father of Charles D. Sanders of Jacksonville Run Down by Car and Taken to St. Mary's Hospital.

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 24.—Cyrus Sanders, about sixty years old, of Jacksonville, Ill., was struck by an automobile this morning and seriously, although not fatally injured. The accident occurred at Franklin and Decatur street, one of the most dangerous crossings in the city.

Sanders probably owes his life to the fact that Elmer Hill, driving the car, was going so slow that he stopped the car in a car's length. Mr. Sanders was taken to St. Mary's hospital.

Mr. Sanders is the father of Chas. D. Sanders of 470 South East street, this city, who was notified of the accident and will go to Decatur this morning.

WHO GETS THE PROFITS?

Growers Watch Interesting Probe in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 24.—A conference which opened today at the Byberry farms, between farmers, commission merchants and consumers, with the object of determining who gets the profits on produce, is being watched by producers and consumers of vegetables all over the country. The probe is being conducted by the Philadelphia Vegetable Growers' Association, to determine who gets the difference between the price of products at the farm and the price the consumer pays.

The conference will strive to reach some understanding by which the cost of distribution can be cut to a reasonable figure. The farmers and consumers place the blame upon the commission merchants, or "middlemen," and these in turn place the responsibility for high prices upon the transportation companies and the hucksters.

All sides of this interesting question will be heard.

band to sail with passengers, including neutrals.

Von Bernstorff to Go to Capital. It was reported tonight that Count Von Bernstorff expected to come to Washington shortly to discuss the situation personally with Secretary Lansing.

Mr. Lansing said that no engagement had been made with the ambassador though he would be glad to see him at any time.

President Wilson and Secretary Lansing were in communication several times during the day. They conferred briefly after the department had sent the German ambassador's message to the white house.

The usual cabinet meeting was not held today and it is probable that the situation growing out of the Arabic disaster will not be placed before the cabinet until the German explanation and all reports from Ambassador Page have been received.

PREDICT SUCCESS IN DARDANELLES

Optimistic Reports Concerning Operations in Circulation in England

WATCH NEGOTIATIONS

Allies Seek Assistance of Balkan States Against Austria and Ottoman Empire

TEUTONS CLAIM PROGRESS

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Optimistic reports concerning operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula have been in circulation for the past few days and prophecies are freely made that a few weeks will see the close of the allies' most difficult task in the near east. The Turks, too, expect the Anglo-French forces to be successful if news reaching Sofia from Constantinople is reliable.

Seek Balkan Assistance.

In fact it is felt here now that so far as the Dardanelles are concerned it is a matter of indifference to the allies whether the Balkan states lend a hand. Their assistance is wanted, however, against Austria and also to shorten Turkish resistance if the straits are opened. For these reasons negotiations with the near eastern capitals are being watched with interest and the decision of Serbia on the proposals of the quadruple entente for satisfying the aspirations of Bulgaria which will be reached at a council of ministers tomorrow is anxiously awaited.

It is believed in London that Serbia's reply will prove satisfactory and Bulgaria's co-operation will be assured. This would open the way also for an active policy on the part of Roumania, who wants assurances Bulgaria will not attack her before she commences to move her troops. It is confidently expected all these questions will be settled satisfactorily to the allies and that within the same period the future policy of Greece will be definitely announced.

Aim Heavy Blows at Russ.

In the meantime, Austro-German armies are aiming more heavy blows at Russia, in the hope of putting her on the defensive indefinitely and permitting the removal of some of their own troops to other fronts, particularly Serbia and Italy, in the hope of repeating their eastern successes. The Russians are encouraged however, by their naval victory in the Gulf of Riga, which has delayed Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's great outflanking movement through Courland and are offering very stiff resistance at almost every point in the Baltic provinces.

While the Russians are falling back east and south of Kovno, it is explained by Petrograd that that was necessary to prevent them from being outflanked. They still hold both banks of the Niemen river from Preney just south of Kovno southward to Grodno, one of the few fortresses still held by them.

On all sides of Brest-Litovsk, the Austro-Germans claim to be making progress while well to the southeast of the fortress the Austrians report their cavalry has entered Kovno, an important railway junction on the lines to Riev and Rovno. There has been heavy fighting in the Vosges without any change in the positions of the opposing armies.

OVER MOVIE FILM

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 24.—The "Birth of a Nation," which stirred up old Boston into theatre riots and legislative action last spring, has Atlantic City by the ears. Through a temporary injunction the city officials are restrained from stopping the film. Today a hearing is under way before the Court of Chancery as to whether the injunction will be made permanent. The colored population resent the portrayal of the negro in the manner which the film producers chose, particularly objecting to a scene where the vicious negro chases the white girl, who jumps to death from a cliff rather than fall into his hands. When the objection was voiced vigorously at Boston, that scene was cut out. It is possible that a similar agreement will be reached here.

CALL SCHUMANN-HEINECK

FOR AUTO SPEEDING

Santa Ana, Cal., Aug. 24.—The case of speeding brought against Mme. Schumann-Heinek and her sons is to be called here today. Whether the wrath of the famous contralto will have cooled since she was arrested on July 31 is a topic of gossip in Los Angeles. It was while she was speeding toward Los Angeles that her auto was held up and the party was taken to court here. The singer declined to plead guilty, so Justice Cox set her trial for today.

ISSUES STATEMENT DENYING REPORTS

U. S. HAS NOT CONSIDERED ANY PARTICULAR MAN FOR PRES. OF MEXICO

Carranza's Reply to Appeal Has Been Completed and Will Soon Reach Washington — Officials Watch For Outcome of Fighting Near Monterey.

Washington, Aug. 24.—While still awaiting a reply from General Carranza to the Pan-American appeal for a peace conference in Mexico the state department today issued a statement denying that the United States government had ever considered "any particular man for provisional president of Mexico."

The statement was prompted by inquiries from Mexico regarding reports that the Pan-American conference had in view the suggestion of some particular Mexican leader to head a provisional government. The name of Vasquez Tagle, who was minister of justice in the Madero cabinet, had been mentioned frequently and recently a report had been circulated that General Oregan was being considered.

Carranza's agents here said tonight that their chief's reply to the Pan-American appeal had been completed and soon would reach Washington. It is expected to suggest prompt recognition of the Carranza government as the surest way of aiding Mexico and to point to the solidarity of the movement as demonstrated by the answers of twenty Carranza generals and governors pledging loyalty to the "first chief."

Encouragement is said to have been given Carranza's representatives here by some of the European governments whose diplomatic agents have been consulted. C. A. Douglas today called upon Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador and submitted to him Carranza's claims for recognition. Great Britain has said it would follow the lead of the United States.

Administration officials are watching with keen interest the outcome of the fighting between Carranza and Villa forces near Monterey. Upon the result of this battle the future course of the Pan-American conference may depend.

OIL DEALERS AGAIN

WHACK STANDARD

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 24.—The Independent Petroleum Markets' Association, which meets here tomorrow, will discuss the fight of the Standard Oil Company against independent dealers in St. Louis and other cities. Many of the 1,000 members of independent organizations have already arrived. It is pointed out that the Standard's fight against the independents in various localities has cut the price of gasoline fifty per cent in the last fifteen months, while the price of crude oil has advanced. It is claimed by the independents that within a short time they will control fifty per cent of the oil output of the country.

CHARGE THEFT OF

AUTOMOBILE PARTS.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Two men, one an employee of the Wells Fargo Express company and the other said to be connected with the local offices of a large automobile concern, were taken into custody late tonight. The men, who are being held at the detective bureau are accused of complicity in a series of thefts of automobile parts and accessories from the express company totalling $250,000.

SUGGESTS UNIVERSITY

AT WASHINGTON.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 24.—A short cut to world peace through the establishment of a university at Washington, D. C., with a thousand professors and an income of ten million dollars a year to support it, and teach students of all nations was suggested here today by Philander C. Claxton, United States commissioner of education at the annual luncheon of the board of managers of the American School Peace League.

SEEK TO ORGANIZE

INSURANCE AGENTS.

Detroit, Aug. 24.—Organization of federations of insurance agents and underwriters in every state in the union to fight encroachments of so-called state monopolistic insurance is one of the aims of the joint convention of the international association of casualty and surety underwriters and the national association of casualty and surety agents which opened here today.

HOLDS EASTMAN KODAK

COMPANY A MONOPOLY.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 24.—The Eastman Kodak company of Rochester is a monopoly in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, according to a decision handed down here late today by Judge John R. Hazel of the United States district court. The decision grants the defendant company an opportunity to present a plan "for the abrogation of the illegal monopoly" on the first day of the November term.

TO SEEK CONFERENCE.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Executive officers of the metal trades division of the American Federation of Labor determined today to seek conferences with owners and financial backers of the industrial plants involved in the campaign which union machinists and other metal workers have launched for an eight hour day and better working conditions, at the plant remained.

U. S. ASKS HAITI TO APPROVE TREATY

Would Administer Finances and Supervise Policing of Island

DRAFT BEFORE CONGRESS

Officials Say State Department Fixed No Time Limit Upon Consideration of Its Request

WOULD PREVENT REVOLTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Turbulent Haiti's new government has been asked by the United States to approve a convention under which for ten years the American government would administer the finances and supervise the policing of the island republic. A draft of the proposed treaty is now before the Haitian congress, sitting at Port Au Prince, where American marines have been maintaining order since the recent killing of President Guillaume by revolutionists. Officials here say the state department fixed no time limit upon consideration of its request but it is admitted that Charge Davis, who presented the treaty draft, might have asked, as press dispatches state, that approval be given by noon tomorrow.

Marines Hold Principal Towns.

While the diplomatic branch of the United States government is working out a plan for future peace in Haiti's domestic life and foreign relations the navy department is proceeding with preparations for an extended stay of its marines on the island. Rear-Admiral Caperton, in command of the forces now occupying not only the capital but most of the principal towns and strategic points, has the situation well in hand with something over 2,000 marines and bluejackets. He is to be reinforced immediately by the armored cruiser Tennessee, with a battalion of 350 additional marines.

To Prevent Revolutions.

Now that action has become necessary, the Washington administration does not intend to leave Haiti to her own resources until necessary steps have been taken to prevent a recurrence of the events of the last eight years during which the little republic has had eight presidents—most of them successful revolutionists—has been in constant trouble with her foreign debts and has been unable to guarantee the safety either of her own people or of foreigners. A high official of the administration explained today that the present period of reconstruction had been deemed the opportune time to press the proposed treaty and that the sole object was to place the Haitian people in charge of their own destinies. It was declared that ten years should suffice to give the islanders a realization of the advantages of permanent, honest government free from revolutionary opposition by selfish politicians.

MUST FURNISH

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS

New York, Aug. 24.—Federal Judge Hunt today decided that the government must furnish additional particulars to William Rockefeller and some of the other defendants under indictment on a charge of criminal conspiracy to violate the provisions of the Sherman law in connection with their administration of the affairs of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad company.

URGES TRAINING OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS.

Boston, Aug. 24.—The establishment of departments in American colleges for the training of public officials was urged at the second national conference on universities and public service held at the state house today.

ACCEPTS WAR ORDER.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 24.—It was announced at the offices of the M. Rumley company here today that the concern had accepted an order to manufacture $750,000 worth of shells for one of the European combatants.

GRANTS CONDITIONAL PARDON.

Marshalltown, Iowa, Aug. 24.—Nathan and Frank Rainsbarger, Iowa's oldest convicts, who were today pardoned conditionally by Governor Clarke, were convicted in this county. Nathan Rainsbarger who now is 62 years old, was sentenced to life imprisonment in the November term of the district court in 1885 and Frank, who is now 59 years old, was sentenced at the March term in 1886.

Amsterdam, via London, Aug. 25.—Russian claims of Great German losses in the naval battle in the Gulf of Riga are repudiated in a semi-official telegram received from Berlin which says that no dreadnaught or cruisers were sunk or damaged.

GOVERNORS EXPRESS CONFIDENCE IN WILSON

RESOLUTIONS ARE FORWARDED FROM CONFERENCE IN BOSTON

Daniels Invites Governors, Their Wives and Daughters to Board (Wyoming Today for a Trip to Gloucester to Witness Review of North Atlantic Fleet.

Boston, Aug. 24.—Resolutions of confidence and support were sent to President Wilson today by governors of nearly a score of states attending the annual conference of governors in this city. These resolutions introduced by Governor Walsh of Massachusetts said:

"The governors of the several commonwealths of the nation in conference assembled, desire to tender to you and expression of their confidence and support in this hour of deep international concern, and to assure you of their readiness to follow your leadership in all matters which you deem best to promote the honor and maintain the peace and welfare of the nation and the whole people."

Manifest Division of Opinion.

A sharp division of opinion manifested itself at the conclusion of addresses by Governors William H. Mann of Virginia, Robert L. Williams of Oklahoma and Moses Alexander of Idaho, who urged the extension of the powers of the governors, when former Governor Alva Adams of Colorado took advantage of the opportunity for discussion afforded by the program.

"You would have us drift away from democracy; to drift from the policies of Thomas Jefferson to those of Alexander Hamilton," he stated. "It is an idea entirely contrary to our ideas of Democracy. It is a power that belongs to a monarchy."

Francis B. McGovern, former governor of Wisconsin in differing from Mr. Adams said it was the people who were demanding increased powers for the governors that they may be made more efficient. He expressed the belief that the governor's powers might well be increased without encroaching upon the legislative branch.

Tells of Short Ballots.

At the suggestion of former governor Franklin Fort, of New Jersey, who was presiding, Governor James S. Flieder of New Jersey told of the operation of the short ballot in his state and said that not only were the people satisfied but they would be better pleased if it were even shorter.

During the afternoon Governor Robert L. Williams of Oklahoma, one of the speakers, urged that a law should be enacted making a governor ineligible during his term of office and for six months afterward for candidacy for the United States senate or for congress, so that all temptations for him to use his office for political advancement might be removed.

At the close of the discussion Secretary of the Navy Daniels invited the governors with their wives and daughters to board the dreadnaught Wyoming tomorrow for a trip to Gloucester, during which the North Atlantic fleet will pass in review.

DANIELS REAFFIRMS INTENTION

Boston, Aug. 24.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels, upon his arrival in this city today attended the meeting of governors said that in his opinion submarines and aeroplanes were among the most powerful weapons of warfare and reaffirmed his intention to ask congress to strengthen both of these branches of the fleet.

HUNGER ADDS TO DISTRESS.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 24.—Hunger today added its misery to distress of wood-marrowed population of Newport, Ark. More than 4,000 persons gathered in the principal buildings of the towns were without food late today.

WAR AFFECTS POLITICS.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—William Howard Taft, former president of the United States who arrived here today from Portland, Ore., expressed the opinion that the European war has an important effect upon American political conditions.

QUARANTINE TOWNSHIP.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Wheeling township in Cook county was ordered quarantined today as a result of a report by B. I. Shanley, state board of livestock commissioner that an epidemic of foot and mouth disease had developed at Arlington Heights, Ill., situated in the township affected.

AMERICANS PREPARE

TO LEAVE HERMOSILLO.

Guaymas, Sonora, Mex., Aug. 24, by wireless via San Diego, Cal.—Fifty Americans, it is reported here, are preparing to leave Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, fearing repetition of attacks made on the town by Yaqui Indians on the nights of August 21st and 22nd.

REPUDIATES RUSS CLAIM.

Amsterdam, via London, Aug. 25.—Russian claims of Great German losses in the naval battle in the Gulf of Riga are repudiated in a semi-official telegram received from Berlin which says that no dreadnaught or cruisers were sunk or damaged.

SECURE NO CLUE TO FRANK'S SLAYERS

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict of Death at Hands of "Parties Unknown"

DELIBERATE 3 MINUTES

Only Once Did It Appear that There Might Be A Disclosure

GRAND JURY MEETS SEPT. 1

MARIETTA, Ga., Aug. 24.—The coroner's inquest here today in the lynching of Leo M. Frank resulted in a verdict of death at the hands of "parties unknown."

Not one of the officials or other citizens examined threw the slightest light upon the identity of the men who took Frank from the state prison farm at Milledgeville and hanged him on the outskirts of Marietta. Only once during the proceedings did it appear there might be a disclosure which might materially have altered the jury's conclusions.

Saw Men Step Out of Cars.

That developed during the examination of J. A. Benson, a Marietta merchant, when the trail of the lynching party nearly was reached. Benson testified that he drove past the oak thicket while the cars of the "vigilance committee" were parked outside and presumably while the hanging was underway. Mr. Benson went so far as to say that he saw one or two of the men in the party step out of the cars in which they had ridden from the prison farm at Milledgeville.

The witness stated he had a pretty strong "suspicion" of what was taking place, for he had read in the morning paper of Frank's abduction from Milledgeville and had been told by "Bill" Frey, farther up the road, that several automobiles had just "whizzed by" and "it looked like something was doing in the way of Frank."

Spectators Listen Attentively.

As Benson unfolded his story the jury and the several hundred spectators, most of them shirt-sleeved or overalled, bent forward eagerly to catch every word. There was no sound in the big superior court room save the voice of acting Solicitor John T. Dorsey, framing the interrogations and that of Benson in reply. Both men spoke earnestly and scarcely above a whisper. There had been a pause of several seconds in the examination when Mr. Dorsey turned to the witness and very slowly asked:

"You say you saw at least one of the men step from one of the automobiles that had turned off the main road at the Frey Gin?" Benson moved a little nervously in his chair, then replied:

"Yes sir."

The acting prosecutor paused, then queried:

"Who was he?"

"I do not know."

There was audible relaxation in all parts of the court room.

Recognizes None of Men.

"You did not recognize anybody?"

"Nobody."

Mr. Benson explained that he did not tarry in the vicinity of the thicket but "drove right by at a good rate of speed."

There were other witnesses examined and city and county officials were called to the stand to tell of their efforts to learn the identity of the lynching party. But when the testimony was concluded there was absolutely nothing to guide the jury to any other verdict than the one which was reached in less than three minutes of deliberation.

The next step in the Frank inquiry is expected to be taken when the grand jury meets at Marietta September 1st. Judge Patterson of the Blue Ridge circuit will deliver a special charge and Solicitor General Herbert Clay will direct the investigation.

The rains have descended and the floods have come, the winds have done some damage, and still the estimate made by the agricultural department is that the United States wheat crop this year will total one billion bushels. A still better idea of the size of this crop can be gleaned by the statement that the total crop for the United States, Canada, India and seven European countries is two and a half billions.

The owners of jitney busses in Springfield are not satisfied with the ordinance for their control proposed by Commissioner Reese and they have about decided to circulate petitions asking that an election be held to decide the matter. They object particularly to the provision that cars must operate six hours a day, and the designation of certain streets on which they are to be operated. There was some opposition, too, to giving bond, but after a conference the jitney owners decided not to oppose the provision.

Ford Joins Bryan.

Henry Ford is the latest influential and avowed enemy of preparedness and has taken his position along with Former Secretary Bryan on this question. Mr. Ford declares that preparedness is the root of all war and that it breathes the spirit of militarism. Further the big automobile manufacturer has indicated that he believes he has found his life work and is ready with his time and his vast wealth to do everything possible to make an end of the present war and other conflicts practically impossible. He declares that this cannot be accomplished by the building of peace palaces nor by inspiring people through powerful armament, but rather by teaching Americans that war does not threaten and in his own language "that the fullness of peace is their inheritance."

The Galveston Spirit.

One cannot but admire the spirit of the residents of Galveston and of other Texas cities where great damage was recently wrought by storm and flood. The officials there made quick work of sending out to the world the exact facts about flood conditions and of stating specifically that no aid was needed from the outside. There have been vast money losses and some loss of life, but the plucky Texans do not wish to appear as subjects for sympathy from the rest of the United States, and they are particularly averse to having any financial aid. It was this spirit that enabled the people of Galveston to recover from the awful losses in 1900 and to take courage from that event to spend the millions for protection which in the recent storm saved them from a similar great disaster.

Senator Sherman's Plan.

Senator L. Y. Sherman, who is being urged by his friends for his nomination for president, is taking a very conservative line of action in the matter. All along Senator Sherman has indicated that he had no intention of conducting a vigorous campaign in his own behalf, but that he prefers to leave the matter largely in the hands of his friends. In an interview in Chicago recently he denied absolutely that he was making any effort to join forces with any faction in Illinois politics. The senator takes the very sensible view that a candidate from Illinois with a piece of a delegation would have an organization about as useful as he puts it, as "a crippled monkey to an organ grinder."

At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to their last resting place in Jacksonville cemetery. The bearers were Harry Ledford, J. W. Ledford, F. L. Ledford, John Hodgson, Alfred Barber and Thomas Harbor.

Funeral services for Frederick J. Hudson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Hudson, 942 South Clay avenue, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the family residence. Words of comfort were extended to the bereaved parents and friends by the Rev. P. M. Rule. Burial was made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

tion has just been completed. Canada is being looked to constantly for important and advanced methods and progressive measures. Her training of women in domestic science not only has influenced the United States, but has had imitation in England. The Canadian schools have been among the pioneers in discarding final examinations in certain sections, especially in the public schools of Ottawa, where examinations, which have so long been a Damoclean sword over the heads of pupils, have been discontinued for several years.

Detroit—The teachers' pension bill, which went into effect August 20 throughout Michigan, with the exception of the city of Detroit, is derided by Detroit educators as "worse than worthless." This view is taken because of the elimination of state aid in establishing the pension system. Detroit teachers have a permanent fund of $100,000 as a basis for a practical retirement system, and will not vote to come under the new law and risk their fund in a larger enterprise.

FUNERALS

Ledford.

Funeral services for the late William H. Ledford were held from Centenary church Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Services were in charge of the Rev. F. A. McCarty, assisted by Rev. H. F. Cusic and the Rev. G. W. Flagg. Music was furnished by a quartet, composed of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rapp, Mrs. Albert Baldwin and W. W. Gillham.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. Edward Phillips and Mrs. Julia Shields.

The sermon was given by the Rev. F. A. McCarty. He took his text from Job 5:26—"Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age, like as shock of corn cometh in its season." Dr. McCarty said in part:

"The life of an old person who has long since passed the three score and ten and also passed the four score is very significant and young people can hardly comprehend the full significance of such a life."

"The many changes which have occurred are of great interest."

"The life of our brother was like a shock of corn because the corn is ripe when it is cut into the sheaf."

"The life of our brother was ripe and ready for the garner."

"He had been ripening under the rays of the grace of God and he had developed and matured until he had gotten quite ready for the home beyond."

"He was also like a shock of corn because he had borne fruit."

"As the corn has borne its fruitage of corn when it is put into the shock so had the life of our brother become fruit."

"It doesn't matter so much at such a time as this to say a man was a great man but it does mean a great deal to say a man was a good man."

"Brother Ledford was a good man. He bore the fruits of the spirit, which are, love, joy, patience, faith, gentleness and meekness."

"When I used to visit Brother and Sister Ledford as their pastor, they always impressed me that they were ready for the garner."

"Upon every occasion when I would call they would say something which would remind one of that fact."

"Brother Ledford was one of the men who sent on to heaven the great things of his life instead of amassing a fortune which he must leave behind."

"People speak very much of what a man leaves behind. I imagine angels speak of what he sends on ahead."

At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to their last resting place in Jacksonville cemetery. The bearers were Harry Ledford, J. W. Ledford, F. L. Ledford, John Hodgson, Alfred Barber and Thomas Harbor.

Funeral services for Frederick J. Hudson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Hudson, 942 South Clay avenue, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the family residence. Words of comfort were extended to the bereaved parents and friends by the Rev. P. M. Rule. Burial was made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

RAILWAY COMPANY OPPOSES PAVING

FILES OBJECTION TO PROPOSED WORK ON SO. MAIN STREET.

Declares That Returns from System Do Not Equal Expenses, Including Interest and Depreciation Charge—Objector Questions Right of City to Assess Costs While Maintaining That Company Has No Franchise.

The hearing of objections to the proposed pavement of South Main street from Morton avenue to Michigan avenue will be had in the county court this morning before Judge W. E. Thomson. Formal objections were filed yesterday by Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty, in behalf of the Jacksonville Railway Company. The amount assessed against the railway company for the improvement is $5,001. Objections are made on ten points.

The principal objections made are on the ground that since the city has questioned the rights of the company to use the street that it has no warrant for attempting to force the company to pave a right of way, the rights to which according to the city's contention might be terminated at any time. It is declared that in addition to the paving cost that the company will be compelled to spend at least $12,000 for reconstruction work. The contention is made that the assessment is unfair because the amount of business being done by the street railway system is not sufficient to pay for operating expenses, interest and depreciation.

The objections summed up are as follows:

First—That the ordinance providing for the improvement is void because of certain defects.

Second—The objector declares the company objects to the confirmation of the assessment roll on the ground that the "Jacksonville Railway company right of way" will not be benefited to the amount assessed against it.

Third—The company objects to the confirmation of the assessment roll on the grounds that the assessment made is greater than its proportionate share of the cost of the proposed improvement.

Fourth—The company objects to the confirmation of the assessment roll for the reason that the special tax commissioner arbitrarily assessed against the right of way of the objectors the entire cost of paving between their rails and for eighteen inches on the outside of each with court costs, etc., without regard to the benefit actually conferred.

Fifth—The company objects to the confirmation on the ground that its right of way is not subject to the assessment of the special tax under the laws of the state of Illinois.

Sixth—The company objects to the assessment made on the ground that the company is under no obligation by contract, franchise charter or otherwise to pay the cost for paving its said right of way.

Seventh—The company objects alleging that the special tax commissioner had no basis on which to assess any benefits against the company because he was acting on behalf of the petitioner, the city of Jacksonville, and said petitioner has been for some time past, and is now contending, that this objector has no franchise or privileges of occupying or using the streets of the said city or of running cars thereon for any definite period of time, and that said city had been and is now contending, that this company is a trespasser or at least no more than a tenant at will upon the street proposed to be improved and there is now pending in the circuit court a procedure instigated by the city questioning the right to use its streets.

The objector, therefore, avers that there can be, in the view of the petitioner, the city, no basis for the assessment of any benefit against a right of way which may according to the contention of the city may be terminated at any moment.

Eighth—The company objects alleging that it will derive no benefit from the improvement, but on the contrary will be put to the expense of $12,000 in tearing up and replacing its ties, rails, etc., and avers that the net result of the proposed improvement will be a detriment.

Ninth—The company further objects for the reason that it is unable to pay the amount of the tax assessed against it because the gross receipts from the operation of the street railway system are not sufficient to pay the expenses of operation and a fair return on the capital actually invested even though no allowance be made for depreciation. The company more particularly shows that its gross receipts for the first seven months of the year 1915 amounted to $27,984.26 and that its actual operating expenses, not including taxes, interest and allowance for depreciation were $18,457.08, leaving a balance over operating expenses of $8,527.18, and the objectors shows that the tax as assessed against its property and paid in 1915 amounted to $2,588.96 and that a proportionate part of said taxes for the first seven months of the year would be $1,510.22 and that if this sum is deducted from the balance before shown there remains a balance of $7,116.96. Further, the company shows that the actual physical valuation of its property is determined by the engineers of the utility commission is at least $256,000; that the rate of five per cent interest on this valuation for the first seven months of the present year would be $7,462 and the objector shows that if this sum be deducted as an interest charge it will leave a deficit of $345.04 without making any charge for depreciation, and that the depreciation should be figured at the rate of four per cent per annum on the physical valuation of $256,000. Therefore, the objector urges that the imposition of the proposed tax will be confiscatory and unjust.

Tenth—The objector claims that the necessary rights to give the court jurisdiction in these proceedings are not had and that therefore the court has no jurisdiction to confirm the assessment roll.

THE SIGNS MUST GO.

Notice has come from the state utilities commission that advertising signs along the highways must be removed, special reference being made to those along Vandallia avenue in South Jacksonville. It is probable that the authorities of that enterprising village will carry out the commission orders and cause all advertising signs to be removed from the streets. A beginning was made in this regard last year when some very large signs were removed from their location near the junction of Vandallia avenue and the Chicago & Alton. At the solicitation of the village officers, the C. & A. also did considerable grading in that locality with a view to minimizing the danger to those crossing the road at that point. The railroad also moved the electric signal bell to the east side of the track which was an improvement and also built a concrete walk across their right of way. In all details the railroad gave evidence of the desire to co-operate with the village authorities in making the railroad as safe as possible.

DAUGHTER STOPS MOTHER'S WEDDING AND SLAPS GROOM

According to a despatch from Laporte, Indiana, S. K. Fay, 52 years old of Bloomington, Ill., and Mrs. Frances Thomas, aged 59 years, of Chandler, Ill., were intercepted from getting married Monday at the home of Mrs. J. L. Lamkin, daughter of the bride, because in the midst of the ceremony the daughter threw her arms around her mother, became hysterical, and slapped the groom when he attempted to pull her away. The daughter, says her mother, who is wealthy, met Fay through answering a Chicago matrimonial advertisement.

RECEIVES INJURY.

A. L. Herriek, a partner of the Construction company that is putting down the hard roads on Monroe avenue, had the misfortune to sprain his ankle severely yesterday and also was hit on the head, while in the act of loading a skit. He was taken to Our Savior's hospital, where he was given medical attention. Nothing serious is anticipated.

UTILITY HEARING.

Henry I. Green, attorney for the Illinois Traction system, on whom account the Jacksonville rate case hearing was indefinitely postponed, has sufficiently recovered to leave French Lick Springs and return to his office at Urbana. The week of Sept. 6, is suggested by Mr. Green as a favorable time for holding the hearing.

THE JEFFRIES BAND.

The program at the chautauqua yesterday was interspersed with many numbers by the Jeffries band and the playing was highly satisfactory and greeted with great applause. The band is an organization of which Jacksonville indeed has good reason to be proud. The band is one of the great attractions of the chautauqua.

ONE OF THE OLDEST.

Among the old settlers at the meeting in the big tent at the chautauqua grounds Tuesday morning was noticed "Uncle" Henry L. Jackson who was born within three miles of Jacksonville in the year 1827 and who has attained to his 88th year. Tuesday.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR THE LATE HAROLD BOYD

Exercises Conducted by Rev. J. W. Miller Assisted by Other Pastors of the City—Burial at Champaign.

Impressive funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock for the late Harold Boyd from the residence of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Boyd, 221 Webster avenue. The funeral was largely attended, many being present from out of the city.

Members of Jeffries Orchestra, of which musical organization the deceased was a member, attended in a body. So large was the attendance that seats were provided in the yard.

Rev. J. W. Miller of Grace M. E. church had charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. G. W. Flagg, Rev. F. A. McCarty, Rev. H. F. Cusic and Rev. W. W. Theobald.

Mrs. Abe Wehl sang tenderly "Some Day We'll Understand," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere". Jeffries Band gave two selections. The flowers were cared for by Misses Esther Davis, Ruby Cully, Helen Allcott and Dorothy Black.

The young men acting as bearers were Wilbur Rogers, Wallace Hemmings, Dale Boxell, Harry Scott, Harold Swain and Floyd Williamson.

The remains were taken over the Chicago and Alton to Bloomington and from there to Champaign, Mrs. Boyd's former home. Further funeral services will be held there this afternoon. Among those to attend the funeral were friends from former pastorates Rev. Mr. Boyd had served. Among the ministers from out of town were Rev. J. E. Art, Ashland; Rev. W. P. Bowman, Concord and Rev. Mr. Campbell, Waverly.

Rev. Mr. Miller took for his text Hebrews 11-4, "He being dead yet speaketh". He paid a most fitting tribute to the deceased. In part he said:

"These words refer to a pure and sinless man. One who has left us an example of innocence, of faith and of devotion. It is a message to us that noble influence is not cut short by death. If through the ages gone this holy influence comes down to us, we are encouraged to believe that down through the ages yet to be like precious influence will accomplish good. We are told again that not great deeds but a true heart speaks loudest. Out of this tragic close of a life in the distant past comes this hopeful message for us today. For we face one of the utter mysterious tragedies of life. Why was it but a step between life and death with this young man? Why were heroic efforts to rescue unavailing in this case? Why was this promising and devoted life thus cut short on the very threshold of its career? We have no answer. There is an answer to our eager questions, and there is One who knows the reason why, and we are assured that some time we too shall know, 'Not now but hereafter'. The answer then will satisfy all demands and comfort all sad disappointments. A dozen circles of fellowships are shocked and smitten. A community is hurt and grieved here today.

This tragedy brings before us again the question, what is the real mission of our life here? In the midst of the uncertainty and confusion there must appear some solid substantial meaning of life. Is it fortune, honor, knowledge, art? Better than all and really including all, the purpose of life is character and service. There is absolutely no doubt that Harold Boyd had attained a true and noble character. The general consensus of opinion among all who knew him is in perfect agreement in this. The band agreed that he was the best prepared to go of them all.

"Eighteen beautiful years. From the day when he first gladdened the heart of his parents through these eighteen years he has been a hope and joy in the home. Early in life, when but six years of age, he expressed a wish to enter the fellowship of the christian church. Later he went forward on decision day in the Sunday school of First church, Decatur. Afterward while living at Ashland he took the solemn vows of membership in the Methodist Episcopal church. Harold always had a profound regard for the church. He loved to do his part. To do his duty in the church was before all outside claims with him, but it was pleasure not duty. His religious life was natural, never affected nor restrained.

"He had fine talents and a worthy ambition. He loved music. Every department save the cheap vaudeville type interested him. He reveled in music, the rhythm and harmony found response in his happy nature. He loved the piano and coronet and his genius was swiftly mastering them. The pipe organ was his ambition. To lead with that noble instrument in the beautiful service of God's house seemed to hold for him the highest charm and most noble use of his art.

"He was a member of the Jeffries Band, the High School Band and orchestra, the orchestra of the Illinois Woman's College, the orchestra of Grace Sunday school, the High School Glee club and the Chorus Choir of Grace church.

"This beautiful art God gave him to use and develop on earth. It is inconceivable that there should be no further use of this talent, but especially in that immortal life of harmony and song. Echoes that have reached the earth tell us of the choruses there and the theme of their mighty song. He will be at home there, he will soon find his place and part in the song of the redeemed.

"Parents and sister, your home gave to the world this noble youth to live a while in the midst of mod-

OLD SETTLERS HELD REUNION TUESDAY

LONG TIME RESIDENTS OF THREE COUNTIES GATHERED AT PARK.

Speakers Gave Interesting Reminiscences of Days Long Since Gone—Prizes Awarded for the Oldest Settlers Present—An Exhibit of Relics.

The Old Settlers picnic given as a feature of the Jacksonville chautauqua drew many to the grounds Tuesday from Morgan and adjoining counties. Addresses were given by Messrs. J. M. Riggs, Ensley Moore and John J. Bergen. Old time songs and an exhibit of relics helped to make the occasion one of unusual pleasure especially for long time residents.

The old settlers' day, or reunion, has been revived and let it not die out. There were old people present, too. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Oldest man native—Henry Jackson.

Oldest woman native—Mrs. Sarah (Black) Sharp.

Oldest man settler—Abisha J. Gunn, Murrayville.

Oldest woman settler—Mrs. John Angell.

Oldest married couple—Mr. and Mrs. James Osborne, Murrayville; married in 1838.

Many were present and all on the grounds entered heartily into the spirit of the day. The grey heads had the floor and were the center of attraction, honored and applauded.

Frank Heint called to order and announced Jerry Cox as chairman of the day. On taking the chair Mr. Cox spoke tenderly of the many he had known and mentioned quite a list of names. The olden days had much to commend them; hospitality was generous; good cheer abounded; neighbors stood by each other and all worked together. He had been almost all over the county and thought the only log cabins now to be seen in the county might be in the southern part. He mentioned the names of several who had attained the age of 100 years, Ellis Wilcox, Mr. Travers, John Chambers of Franklin, Aunt Dicey Dunlap, the last to pass away. There have been others among whom the writer recalls Mrs. Josephine Quintal, who died a few years ago. Mr. Cox mentioned many other names and dwelt tenderly on their memory. He told of the debt we owe them and how carefully we should be to do honor to their memory. He also recited some very creditable verses which he had composed for the occasion.

James Campbell, of the east part of Scott county, then sounded an ancient ox horn used to call the people together at camp meeting and he made it sound too, though he said he was hardly as strong as some of the old timers.

Capt. John E. Wright and Wm. S. Lurton then sang very acceptably Mr. Lurton accompanying on the 'cello. The first number was "Oh Heaven; Sweet Heaven" and the next "Deliverance Will Come."

Hon. J. M. Riggs.

The next speaker was Hon. J. M. Riggs of Scott county. The gentleman is well known as an attorney of prominence, a fine speaker and a popular man. He said in substance:

I represent Scott county though the time was when Morgan, Cass and Scott were all one. Cass was set off in 1837 and Scott in 1839. My paternal grandfather came to Illinois in 1815, when it was only a territory and later removed to Scott county. Looking back over the early days we can see what progress had been made. The first schoolhouse was of round logs with only a hole cut in one side of the logs for light and when the older children wanted to write they had to raise the punchon which dropped down over the hole and hold it up with a piece of leather which was generally a piece of a boot leg.

In a few years we had a schoolhouse made of hewn logs which was a great improvement and ten years later we had a two story brick building for school and after a while we really had a piano in it and one of Prof. Turner's sons used to come down and teach music. We used to raise sheep and shear the wool which at first was carded by hand and later machinery and then the women used to spin the yarn which was made into dresses which our sisters wore. They were dresses then worn by Peggy and Patty, but now Marie and Angelina wear gowns, one for morning, one for luncheon, one for afternoon and one for dinner, one for evening and one for traveling and after a while I suppose they will have to have one for tennis and at last for golf.

Grain used to be cut at first with a sickle and my stepfather sent me out to cut some and I cut my hand leaving a scar to be seen yet. Then came the cradle, then the McCormick reaper and the old ones said it would never work but now they have the binders and out west where they are sure of god weather they cut, bind and thresh all at once.

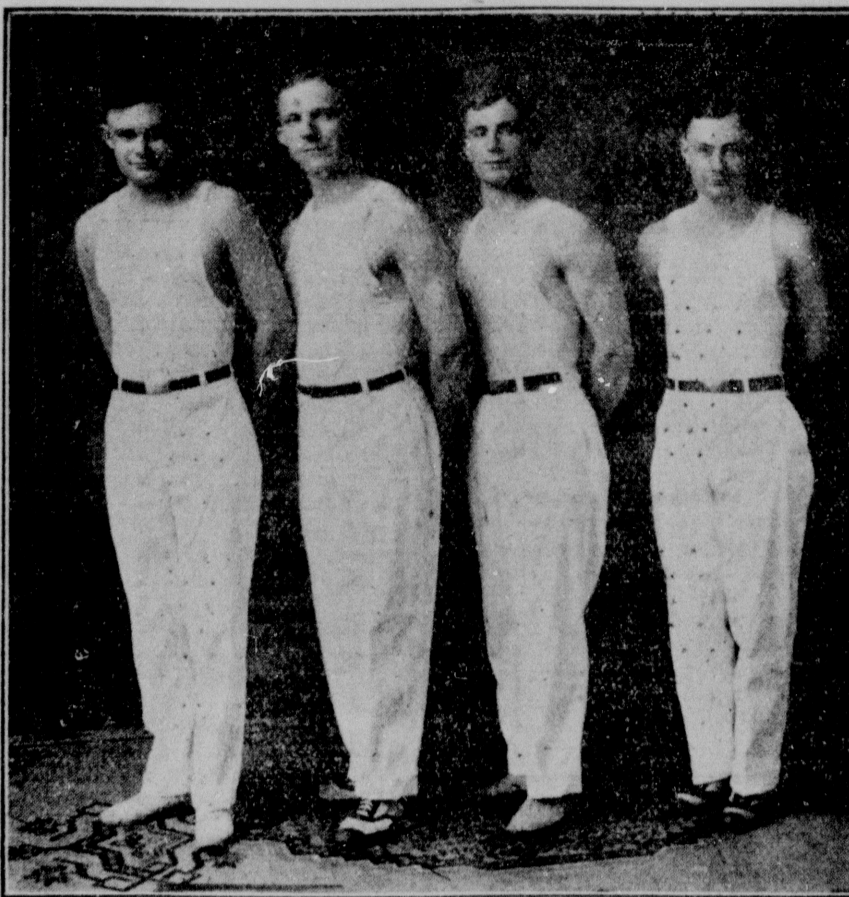

I do not believe in war unless a nation is attacked and is obliged to defend itself. I admire Bryan and voted for him three times, but I do not agree with him regarding preparedness for war. We ought to have a state militia and a national guard and better navy.

James Campbell then sang Auld Lang Syne, his daughter accompanying on the piano.

J. J. Bergen.

The next speaker was J. J. Bergen of Virginia. The gentleman was obliged to represent Cass county

Y. M. C. A. GYMNASIUM TEAM FEATURE OF CHAUTAUQUA TONIGHT

One of the attractive features of the Chautauqua program tonight will be a Parallel Bar Gymnastic performance by the Y. M. C. A. Gymnastic team. This team has been working regularly on this exhibition for a number of weeks and promises to be one of the best demonstrations of Parallel bar work the local Association has ever put on.

The three men shown with Physical Director Brewer are the members of the Gymnasium Leaders Corps. The leaders are not only being trained to do gymnastic stunts but understand all Gymnasium work but are making a special study of First Aid, Swimming and Life Saving and ways and means of doing other Association work outside of the Physical Department.

The Leaders have been re-organized and the motto is "Efficiency."

HON. JASPER T. DARLING.

Ex-Senator Henry W. Blair of New Hampshire writing of lectures he had heard delivered by Jasper T. Darling, who is to lecture on Old Soldier's day at the Chautauqua camp meeting says: "It goes without saying that these addresses delivered by Jasper T. Darling are not only of literary excellence, and powerfully eloquent in expression, but also terse and sometimes almost terrible in the statement of facts, now most necessary to be recalled to public attention."

Major Robert Mann Woods, past commander of the Illinois G. A. R. writes: "We are proud of Dr. Darling and his eloquent addresses."

It is desirable that there will be a full attendance of all soldiers of the late wars with their friends to attend these exercises on Old Soldier's day Friday, 27th at 10:30 a. m. The assurance is given that those who are present will be highly instructed and entertained.

Robert Allen, was beloved by all the college boys, but not more so than was Dr. Glover, pastor of the new school Presbyterian church, which was nearly just across the street and where we used to love to go and hear Mrs. Alex McDonald and Gus Catlin sing and Bob Buckley play the organ. I heard John G. Saxe recite in the old church on the east side of the square, about where Jim King's Trade Palace was afterward built. It was my first adventure in taking a young lady. Her overshoe pulled off in the mud crossing the street and I did not know what to do.

The Phi Alphas held their reunions and banquets in the Fox or Park hotel on the north side of the square. Those were grand old days. Would that I had time to refer to the boys and girls of fifty-eight years ago, the most of whom are gone, which brings a feeling of sadness. But we rejoice in the blessings of today and trust another year we may meet under as pleasant surroundings.

Capt. Wright and Mr. Lurton then sang "Oh Israel" and "Deliverance Will Come."

The next speaker was Ensley Moore.

Ensley Moore.

Judge Riggs had referred to Mr. Bryan and President Wilson. When Mr. Moore began, he said: "I am a 'standpat Republican', and you may know I did not vote for President Wilson. But I want to take a vote of this audience. I think in these times every one ought to sustain President Wilson in his position and the stand he has taken to keep this country out of war. I ask every one here present, who sustains the President in this to raise the right hand." Hands went up all through the crowd. Then Mr. Moore said, "All opposed to the President's position raise the right hand". Not a hand was elevated.

Mr. Moore then told of the old time grist mills, run by water, in Morgan county, and said one was at Pulham's ravine, and he asked where his auditors supposed that water power was; stating it was right back of them, being the site

AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES—NORTHWESTERN.

Northwestern University was founded in Evanston, Ill., in 1885, at which time Chicago was supposed to be in the northwestern section of civilization. It was established by the Methodists and has remained firmly Methodist ever since, though its location on the edge of Lake Michigan made most of its students firm believers in immersion whenever the water is warm enough for bathing. It has a fine wooded campus which would now be worth $7,000,000 if cut up for building lots, and it has educated Evanston to such an extent that whenever an Evanstonian pulls a lowbrow stunt it is regarded as a natural phenomenon and gets a column on the first page of the Chicago newspapers.

Northwestern's early buildings are of the old octagonal tower type with ivy overcoats. Its alumni have contributed to it with such vigor and persistence that it now has over $4,000,000 endowment, a library of over 100,000 volumes and a number of huge and imposing learning laboratories. Evanston has never been interested in the price of oil, like Chicago University, but quivers with anticipation whenever there is a corner in wheat. James A. Patten, who doled out the bread of the nation for a brief period once, is its patron saint, and while he was in business the University got a new building whenever wheat crossed the dollar mark.

Northwestern has fine law, medical and dental schools in Chicago and has nearly 5,000 students, including a football player and vast numbers of unusually ornamental co-eds. It also has a School of Divinity and a coast-guard, being the only University to maintain both life-saving and soul-saving stations. It houses its girls in a vast hall completely surrounded by eager men students and its fraternities in large stone quadrangles which are fire, bomb and earthquake proof and ought to last several years.

Northwestern has turned out many famous men graduates, but its greatest pride is its famous woman graduate, Frances E. Willard. The only co-ed who has had a dormitory and a skyscraper named after her and who occupies a place in the Hall of Statuary at Washington.

of our city water supply in Nichols Park.

He then spoke of a name omitted in the chairman's list: that of Robert Goudy, one of the earliest newspaper men of Jacksonville, and probably the first printer of a book in Illinois—the statutes of the state excepted. He referred to two books published by the Goudys, copies of which Mr. Heint afterwards exhibited.

Mr. Moore then stated that he had quoted some poetry, appropriate to the occasion, and concluded his remarks as follows:

"A poet has said: 'Eyes that can but ill define, Shapes which rise about and near, Through the far horizon's line Stretch a vision free and clear; Memories feeble to retrace, Yesterday's immediate flow, Find a dear familiar face In each hour of Long Ago.'"

Boston, 3; Detroit, 1.
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 24.—Fielding of a brand almost superhuman was matched against desperate slugging this afternoon and it gave Boston a 3 to 1 victory over Detroit in the whirlwind opening contest of a series which may decide the American League pennant. Three hits, two of them bunts and wild throws by Coveleskie and Stange gave the league leaders three runs in the first inning. The Tigers, smashing almost everything that Shore had to offer, put man after man on the bases only to see them die there when Barry, Gainer, Hooper, Speaker, Gardner or Scott cut off drives that seemed safe beyond question. Only in the fifth when Bush walked and Cobb dented the right field screen with a triple, could Detroit score. In the sixth Gainer made a one hand stop behind first base of a rifle shot grounder by Crawford. Speaker running at full speed with his back to the ball, caught Veach's drive a few feet from the center field stand.

Many balls were thrown out of the game by umpires, each team alleging the spheres had been tampered with. After Cobb was thrown out in the eighth he attempted to explore the Boston dugout. A dozen players quickly surrounded him and he was forced to return to his own bench.

'MORNING GLANCES' (By Gosh)

The other day Connie Mack was in Peoria with his famous White Elephants. The White Elephants have shrunk considerably since last fall when they were trimmed by the Braves in the world's championship series. Yet Mack, the man who made the Athletics, is still at the helm and says he is going to build up a team that will be even greater than the old one. We believe that Mack Leibold,  may keep his word for stranger things have happened than that.

While in Peoria Mack paid his compliments to Clarence Rowland, the present boss of the White Sox. Rowland formerly was manager of a team here and went from Peoria to the White Sox. Mack says he has arrived and is making good.

What interested us more was what he said about Walter Woodman, the Peoria ground keeper. Walter is a simon pure home

MARKET LETTERS

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET
Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Aug. 23.—Oliver S. Green, with Walter Bros., Union Stock Yards, reports the estimated receipts for Monday, Aug. 23: 21,000 cattle; 20,000 hogs; 8,000 sheep.

The steer run was too liberal to sustain values on steady basis, although a few prime handy lots sold at steady prices. Big heavy heaves were poor sale and these got lower along with the plain heavy lots and few sold over 9.75. The range run of 4500 were strong competitors against medium natives.

Receipts of she stock in small proportion and the bulk were sold on a steady basis. Some little lower on the late market, but dry lots favored. Canners generally steady. Bulls strong to higher.

With several thousand hogs less than expected the general market was 10 to 15c higher than last Saturday. The range in prices is narrower, the common grades advancing more than the light.

With only 8,000 sheep and lambs on the market today trade was generally 10 to 15c higher with places showing more advance. Top for western lambs 9.10. Quite a number landed up to 9c.

There was a full trading on cattle and four-fifths of the run was sold after noon. Packers then forced a decline of 10 to 15c off of the bulk. Medium and pretty good grassers and short fed natives were slow from the start. A lot of native grassers sold around 8.25.

The bulk of the corn fed sold from 8.85 to 9.50, and this class was 25 to 35c lower than a week ago today. Choice to prime steers were 10 to 15c lower than last Monday. Nothing strictly prime was here, and only a few quotations reached 9.75.

Two loads of prime 1473 pound steers reached 10c. Three loads averaging around 1600 at 9.90. Two carloads yearlings, one load averaging 970 at 9.65 and one load averaging 1915 at 9.90. Extra prime yearlings if offered you have brought a rise of 10c.

Native beef cattle quotations: Choice to prime heavy heaves, 9.35 to 10.00. Choice to prime heavy heaves, 9.50 to 10.15. Common to fair yearlings, 7.50 to 8.60.

Good to choice corn feds, 9.00 to 9.30. Medium to good handy steers, 8.40 to 9.00. Common to medium warmed-ups, 7.40 to 8.35. Common to plain grass steers, 6.65 to 7.40.

Inferior to rough grass steers, 5.50 to 6.50. Early the run was called 20,000 and later 21,000. 4500 westerns against 1500 a week ago and 4500 a year ago and 4000 two years ago caused another factor to lower the market on all but a few fancy light and handy weights. A train of Mexicans went at 7.35.

224 of the E. M. Heinrich cattle averaging around 1400 made 8.75. Cows, 4.75 to 5.80. With most of the double wintered southern cattle 7.60 to 8.25. Steink and H. western cattle averaging from 1300 to 1415 made 8.40.

Butcher stock market: Cows, 5 to 8.25. Heifers, 5 to 8.60. With extra prime yearling heifers from 9 to 9.50. Bulls 4.75 to 7.75. Canners and cutters, 3.35 to 4.85.

Common heavy calves to good vealers 5 to 11.50. Choice to prime vealers 11.75 to 12.25. Hog quotations: Mixed packing 6.20 to 6.50. Medium and butchers 6.55 to 6.80. Poor to good heavy packing 5.90 to 6.30.

Rough heavy packing 5.50 to 5.85. Light weights 7.05 to 7.70. Select packing and shipping 6.35 to 7.90. Pigs and thoroughbreds 1.50 to 8.00. With a run of 8,000 compared with 16,337 a week ago and 37,332 a year ago market was higher.

Native ewes 3.50 to 3.65. Native yearlings, 6.50 to 6.75. Bucks, 4.75 to 5c. Native lambs 6.75 to 8.85. Western lambs 6.80 to 9.10.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK.
Kansas City Stockyards, Aug. 24.—Stockers and feeders were well sold out last week, and this week opened with a clean slate. The good cattle sold steady last week, but common grades declined 25 to 40 cents. Shipments were 1,500 head, 6,000 more than previous week, and same as a year ago. Today there is 15,000 cattle here, market steady to 10c lower on killers, but strong on stockers and feeders. Good short horn feeders weighing around 1,000 pounds sold at $7.25 to $7.35, and choice white faces of these weights $7.75. Above that price is a question of flesh, some 1,150 pound steers feeder buyers today at $8.20. Demand for fleshy feeders is light, and that class will sell lower within a short time, or just as soon as Kansas ships grass cattle freely. Good grass is causing a slow start in the movement of Kansas grassers, but a very large number will come to market this season, and unless there is material improvement in the demand for feeders, prices will go lower. So far buyers are taking young cattle, such as will do to rough through the winter, rather than steers that are ready for an immediate entrance to a good business set of cattle around $6.75. Choice short horn calves around $8, good ones $7.50, selected white face calves up to $8.50. A car of good native stockers weighing 600 pounds sold $7.40 today, and a car of blacks, 800 pounds, sorted out of a larger drove, cost $8. Breeding stock is

WHEAT MAKES PARTIAL RALLY AFTER RECESSION IN FINAL HOUR

Market Closes Steady at a Net Loss of 1/4 to 3/4 to 1/2—Corn Weakens With Wheat in September Option.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—A sharp recession in the final hour carried wheat to the lowest point of the day but there was a partial rally and the market closed steady at a net loss of 1/4 to 3/4 to 1/2, with September at 99c and December at 97c.

Corn weakened with wheat in the September option but a buying spurt sent December up a little, the closing figures being 1/4c higher to 1/2c lower with September at 73c and December at 63c.

Oats dropped to a net loss of 1/2c. Provisions lost 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c. Corn after a firm opening lost tone in sympathy with wheat but September was the chief sufferer. December, though it closed below the top price of the day was yet 1/2c above yesterday's close at the finish of the day.

Expectation of increased receipts and forecast for generally fair and warmer weather exerted a depressing influence in the corn pit.

WOMAN WANTS TO HELP OTHERS

By Telling How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Miami, Okla.—"I had a female trouble and weakness that annoyed me continually. I tried doctors and all kinds of medicine for several years but was not cured until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I hope my testimonial will help other suffering women to try your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MARY R. MILLER, Box 453, Miami, Okla.

Another Woman who has Found Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lindsborg, Kansas.—"Some years ago I suffered with terrible pains in my side which I thought were inflammation, also with a bearing down pain, backache, and I was at times awfully nervous. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now enjoying good health. I will be glad to recommend your medicine to any woman suffering with female trouble and you may publish this letter."—Mrs. A. L. SMITH, R. No. 3, Box 60, Lindsborg, Kansas.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

WHEN YOU WASH YOUR HAIR DON'T USE SOAP

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

remarked that there was a relic of the lady.

Henry Jackson and Lyman F. Joy rode on the first train on the old road between Naples and Springfield. J. D. Adams showed an old time candlestick brought from England by George Simpkins. The old music books, Missouri Harmony were shown.

Mrs. Isaac Crabtree showed a candlestick bought by her father, Joshua Fisher, when he went to house-keeping; a Dutch oven cover 100 years old; a quilt made by her grandmother; another made by Mrs. Lane C. Crabtree when 16 years of age; a bonnet and shawl worn by her grandmother from Ohio in 1854. The lady was a sister of John T. Alexander's mother.

Henry Jackson showed a warming pan used in olden times to warm up a bed before retreating on a cold night. Nearly every one supposed it was a corn popper.

PRESERVING LATE FRUITS.

Plums, quinces, peaches, and grapes, in fact all late fruits, are rich and sweet and make most delicious preserves.

To each pound of fruit three-fourths to one pound of sugar will be required, and one-half cup of water is allowed to each pound of sugar used. The fruit simmered in the syrup until it is tender, when it is packed in jars or crocks and the syrup is cooked alone until it reaches the desired thickness, when it is poured over the fruit.

HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL

Hard fruits, like quinces, should be steamed or cooked in boiling water before they are put into the syrup, else they may not be tender. Peaches are best for preserving right now, and apricots and nectarines are prepared in exactly the same way. Large juicy freestones give best results. Pare them, cut in half and remove the stones. To each pound allow three-fourths of a pound of sugar and six peach kernels. Put a layer of peaches and a layer of sugar in a jar until all are used. Cover and stand aside over night.

In the morning bring quickly to a boil and cook until the peaches are tender and transparent. Put them into jars one piece at a time so they will not break and stand aside to cool. Cook the syrup down, pour it over them and tie up or seal.

The writer peels peaches by scalding a dozen at a time with fresh, boiling water and rubbing the skins off with a coarse cloth. The fruit does not become soft if the work is done rapidly and it looks smoother than when pared with a knife.

Preserved Plums—Put plums in a porcelain kettle with three-fourths their weight of sugar and just enough water to dissolve it. Cook five minutes or longer if necessary and finish as directed for peaches. The skin is not generally removed from plums but is picked to prevent it splitting off while cooking.

Preserved Pears—Peel them and leave whole or cut in two lengthwise, splitting the stem also and place in very clear, large-mouthed glass jars. Have ready a syrup of the consistency you like on pears and pour this over the fruit. Put the lids on but do not fasten and place on a rock in a fruit boiler with warm water to the shoulder of the jar. Cover the boiler and cook the fruit until it is tender and clear. Fill the jars to the top, using more hot syrup or the contents of one jar. Fasten the tops securely and put them where cold air will not strike them.

Pears are so delicate that they break easily, so that though they may be cooked like peaches or plums this method is best.

Tomorrow—A small kitchen economy.

You Would Like to Have That Steak Cooked Just Right? Indeed You Would Think how difficult it is for the cook to perform such a feat after having wrestled with the coal pile, dirt, soot, smoke, and uncontrollable fire and an unsightly kitchen range.

The preparation of a perfectly delicious steak or any other cooked, baked, boiled or broiled article of food, on the new gas range is another trick entirely. The fire is just right, just where you want it and when you want it, and perfectly controllable and not accompanied with any of the above objectionable features.

You Will Want to Save
On Your Coal Bills This Winter

No doubt you will. Coal is going to be higher this winter than ever before. The inevitable coal strike should be prepared for now. You can operate a gas range for one-half the amount that will be necessary to buy coal for a coal range at even the present price of coal and the cost of a gas range is a great deal less than that of a coal range

You Have Decided to Buy a Gas Stove if You Can Find a Good One at a Reasonable Price

That is just what I am getting at. For three days this week—THURSDAY, FRIDAY and Saturday—we will make prices on Gas Stoves that will startle you

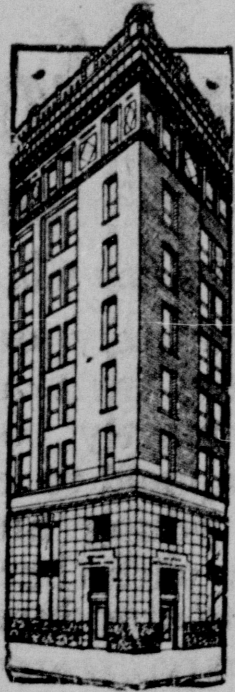

We have our show room full of a variety of styles and makes and will be glad to quote rock bottom prices during these three days—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Come in and see us.

The county federation of women, rural school improvement, better farming methods and parent-teacher organizations as factors in reform were among the diverse subjects represented on a full chautauqua program Tuesday afternoon and the attendance, in both main and auxiliary tents, spoke well for the interest aroused. The address by Hon. Charles Adkins, ex-speaker of the Illinois house, was in a sense historic and referred back to the Old Settlers' celebration of the forenoon. A plea for better farm practices, with greater profits for the individual farmer, was made by W. R. Butler, of Madison county, Indiana, in a stereopticon lecture last night. This was followed by a brief band concert after which Dr. Wheeler P. Davey, of Schenectady, N. Y., elaborated by stereopticon and motion picture the history, technology and uses of the X-ray.

Immediately after the monster auto parade, Jeffries' band will give a concert and judges will make an announcement of prizes. Phases of the good roads question will be treated by Hon. A. D. Gash, president of the Illinois highway commission. Homer J. Rice will speak after a half hour concert by the Chicago male quartet. The quartet and band will both appear in the evening and Ash Davis, the cartoonist, who follows the two-part concert, will conclude the day's events with an entertainment the quality of which is intimated by Mr. Davis' reputation for always making good.

Story of the X-ray.
Dr. Davey is research physicist for the General Electric company and has held professorships in Pennsylvania State college and in Cornell university. Dr. Davey showed lantern slides of many curious X-ray pictures which he has taken, illustrating use of the apparatus in inspection of steel castings and of such products as built-up mica. Other new uses of the X-ray were illustrated, especially the treatment of tobacco to prevent the growth of the "cigar" larvae. Dr. Davey spoke of the medical uses of the X-ray, now so enlarged by the use of the Coolidge tube. He warned against the quick X-ray man but spoke in the highest terms of the well trained radiologist.

Besides the lantern slides a part of the lecture was illustrated by the use of motion pictures. Peristaltic action of the stomach, circulation of blood, etc., were shown.

County Club Women.

Taq Morgan County Federation met at the chautauqua grounds yesterday afternoon and had a highly profitable session. The body is composed of women's clubs of the county and is not restricted to those who are organized for literary pursuits alone but is open to organizations of women of any kind. The charter members are: The Strawn's Crossing club; Woman's Club of Jacksonville; East Side Tuesday club of Jacksonville; Household Science club of Chapin; Woman's Country club of Orleans; Domestic Science Round Table of Jacksonville; The Homemakers' Circle of Franklin; The Mound Woman's Club and the Domestic Science Club of Murrayville. It was founded on the same principle as the Twentieth District Federation of Women's Clubs and is for Morgan county only. Its object is the betterment of the home and school.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. A. J. Ward, president of the county federation, in the tent belonging to the organization and Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen, secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. Mrs. Benjamin Lorton, chairman of the committee on constitution, presented her report which was adopted. In the absence of Miss Clara Cobb, corresponding secretary, and treasurer, the place was filled by one present.

H. H. Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools, was present by invitation and made a very interesting talk on the standardization of the county schools. The gentleman then gave the subject much thought and attention and his remarks were timely and to the point.

Mr. Adkins An Optimist.
Hon. Charles Adkins, ex-speaker of the Illinois house, made a good address on "Conditions Then and Now." A few points are given.

"A good many people complain of conditions and some would have you think the land is going to rack and ruin. But let us look at the matter in its true light. Think of the conveniences and luxuries we have now,

So many complain because there are some millionaire manufacturers. Would they have the factories shut up, the railroads discontinued and the boats taken from the waters? There are some wealthy railroad men but do we want to go back to the ox teams for transportation, the wagon and stage coach?

We hear calamity howlers on all sides but none of them tell how to make things any better. It was feared that improved machinery would injure the laborer and mechanic but it has not done so. The international harvester company has been dogged and hounded and yet it has done immense good and injured no one. People talk of the dark future of the land but I claim it is bright and getting better.

We want to treat all alike if we would prosper. The manufacturers and corporations should have suitable regulation and fair treatment in all things. The duties of citizenship are increasing and we should be awake to our part. Because one man gets rich too fast we do not want to tear down the whole fabric of society but regulate wisely."

Standardizing Schools.
One of the important numbers on the program was the address of W. R. Booth, assistant superintendent of public instruction in Illinois. His topic was the importance of standardization of the public schools of the state. His remarks were timely and deserved greater space than can be given them.

"Schools and churches cannot do all for the children but they can do much. Good teachers well paid are indispensable; false economy in this matter is suicidal. The mere name or plate on a building doesn't make a standard school but the plate is given the school that deserves it. The children should be cared for physically and morally as well as mentally. The schoolhouse should be made attractive on the outside and should be well lighted and ventilated.

"It is said the directors of the Markham school district are erecting a strictly modern building worthy to standardize. All honor to them. The most important work in the world is the educating of the young and every effort should be put forth to have it done in the best manner."

An Appeal to Parents.

An interesting number on the program was the address of Mrs. W. F. Young of Chicago, vice-president of the Illinois Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teachers' association. Her talk was an earnest plea for the formation of parent-teachers' associations which fathers as well as mothers should belong and attend. The public school is the greatest of all enterprises and all parents are far to apt to think their whole duty is done when they lead the child to the school house door, put him in care of the teacher and furnish clothing, food and books.

To make schools successful all forces must be harmonized. All patrons of the school should unite with the teacher in the work. The school should be aided and the association socialized. The slogan should be team work. The standard of teachers should be high; salaries sufficient to enable the directors to get the best; meetings of the association should be on time, in the schoolhouse; good programs well carried out; round table discussion and light refreshments will also do wonders.

A good talk was given yesterday in the farmers' tent on "The Business of Farming," by W. R. Butler of Indiana. The speaker showed a number of charts and anything like a condensation of his address is impossible as his charts were so comprehensive. He showed how many farmers might better sell their land, put their money at interest and work for wages. Small farms will only pay when the best of care is used in variety of crops for stock; the old way of grain and grass will never pay. Rotation of crops and stock raising will bring results.

AUTOMOBILE PARADE WILL BE FEATURE OF CHAUTAUQUA

Large Number of Cars Expected to Be in Line This Afternoon at One O'clock—Prizes to Be Announced at Park.

A special feature of the Jacksonville chautauqua is promised today when the big automobile parade will take place at one o'clock. While it is not generally known several auto owners have been busy decorating their cars in view of the liberal prizes which have been offered. Jeffries' band will be divided into two divisions and will participate in the parade. It is very essential that those who enter the contest register, as early as possible, today at the places provided on West State street. Six judges seated in automobiles will have the deciding votes as to "Who is who".

The following will be the formation of the parade:

Class A cars will form on West College avenue, north of Illinois college, headed east.

Class B cars will form on Mound avenue, south of Illinois college, headed east.

Class C cars will form on Grove street, headed west.

Class D motorcycles will form on Park street, just north of College avenue.

All other cars will form on South Diamond street, south of College avenue, headed north.

It is not necessary, however, that a car be decorated to be in the parade as numbers will be handed out and the drawing will take place on the chautauqua platform. It has been announced that several cars will be here from neighboring towns. The list of prizes offered are all that could be desired. The addresses at the park by Hon. A. D. Cash of De Kalb and Hon. Homer J. Tice of Greenville, promises to be features of the good roads day.

Special meeting of Harmony lodge No. 3, Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. Visiting brethren welcome.

CASES OF INTEREST.

Champerly and Maintenance.

(West Publishing Co. Report)

The petitioners were attorneys for the plaintiff in this action. They were retained under a contingent fee contract. While the action was pending the plaintiff made a settlement with the defendant. The defendant set up as its defense against the claims of the petitioners in this action, that the petitioners had been for a long time engaged in the business and conspiracy of unlawfully stirring up strife and contention and vexatious and speculative litigation between the defendant and persons having personal injury claims against this defendant and prevented compromise of said claims without litigation; that petitioners, in soliciting and obtaining claims against defendant, traveled from place to place, and employed for such purposes a large number of laymen as agents and solicitors; that for the purpose of obtaining cases they had paid to the claimants large sums of money for the support and maintenance of the claimants during the litigation; that they paid all costs and disbursements, on the understanding with the claimants that the latter, in case there was no recovery, should not be liable therefor, and that the petitioners would reimburse themselves for the money so advanced out of the proceeds of the litigation. The Supreme Court of Minnesota said: "It is champerty or maintenance or against public policy for an attorney to solicit business to pay money to a poor client for his living expenses during the litigation, or to advise him against a settlement of his case? In the absence of some statute, we are unable to hold that it is illegal or against public policy for an attorney to solicit a case. The practice of advancing money to the injured client with which to pay living expenses while he is unable to earn anything may in a sense tend to foment litigation by preventing a settlement from necessity, but we are aware of no authority holding that it is against public policy, or of any sound reason why it should be so considered. It is only when the attorneys are to ultimately stand the costs, or when the client is indemnified from liability for them in case of no recovery, that the law declares the arrangement void. MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF YOUNG MAN FROM GLASGOW

Seventeen Year Old Son of Thomas Bell Left Home Sunday and Has Not Been Heard From Since—Other Winchester News.

The seventeen-year-old son of Thomas Bell, residing near Glasgow, Scott county, left home Sunday afternoon and has not been heard from since. On leaving he told his father that he was going to visit friends near the pumping station. As he did not return the relatives became alarmed, thinking he might have drowned. All day Monday the river and ditches of that vicinity were dragged and later bloodhounds were sent for and put on a trail which led them as far as Patterson where the dogs lost the scent. The young man had always been contented with his home and members of the family cannot understand his strange disappearance.

Personal Mention.

Newton Moore, of Bluffs, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Earl Nelson, who has been ill for the past six weeks is slowly recovering.

Mrs. Harry Andell, underwent an operation at Passavant hospital Tuesday morning. Dr. Fletcher and Mr. Andell went with Mrs. Andell to Jacksonville, the physician assisting in the operation.

Judge Funk, T. J. Priest, Fred Neat, Ray Nelson, and Harry Allen attended Masonic lodge Tuesday night in Roadhouse going in Mr. Allen's car.

(Byron Hill, of Franklin, is visiting with T. C. Hill and family.

The trains on the Burlington railroad have been running irregular on account of the high water in the vicinity of Alton.

Miss Lela Finney has returned to her home in Bluffs after a visit with Miss Anna Kellam.

ABOUT THAT REFUND.

Will purchasers of Ford cars receive the refund as promised? We answer "Yes, absolutely so." The company is sending out ten thousand checks every day, of $50 each, to parties all over the country.

And have you stopped to think that the best way to invest that refund is to have a "North-East Lighting and Starting System" put on your car? We have them ready to install.

A LARGE CONTRACT SECURED BY THE F. J. ANDREWS CO.

A large coal house is soon to be constructed at Jacksonville State Hospital in this city and as a considerable amount of material will be required for the work which is to be done by the institution and not by contract the material was to be bought. For this purpose the state advertised for bids which were sent in from Peoria, Springfield and various other places and yesterday a telegram was received by the F. J. Andrews Lumber Co., of this city, that the contract had been awarded them.

It will call for 26 car loads of lumber, lime, brick, sand, cement, roofing slate and other material and the fact that the contract was secured by the company is a great credit to their stock and prices. The fact is that no contract is either too large for this old and reliable house to handle or too small to receive its attention.

JUST a week left within which to avail yourself of the savings afforded by this wonderful sale of housefurnishings.

And in all the eighteen years of our business existence we have never seen people so enthusiastic as the hosts who have already visited us, and profited by the savings of this sale.

Reductions, bona fide and substantial, apply to everything in the whole house.

Prospective housewives and brides-to-be of the coming fall months have bought their entire home-making outfits at this sale. And why not, when fifty or a hundred dollars can be saved by doing so?

Goods selected now will be held upon payment of a small deposit and without storage charges for future delivery.

Come! The savings of this sale make it well worth while to anticipate your furniture and housefurnishing needs for the next six months.
